MOTHER WHO VIST MAINE BOY SLAYER

Reunion Set In Jail Cell

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Oct. 19.—From a bedside reunion of Paul N. Dwyer, 15-year-old "chauffeur of death," and his grief-stricken mother, Maine authorities today awaited a difficult confession in the brutal murder of Dr. and Mrs. James G. Littlefield.

A 15-minute interview between mother and son, the first since the estranged slayer was returned from New Jersey, was authorized by Oxford County Sheriff Fernando Francis.

The sheriff acted after an latest intermediary had carried to him Mrs. Jennie Dwyer's fearful plea to see her son before the boy was removed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Augusta, under a court order issued today.

Mrs. Dwyer is in a state of collapse at the Hotel, Mr. Francis learned.

Appointed as her mother's request, while waiting removal from the county jail here, young Dwyer said: "Yes, I'll see her."

O'Hara Calls Off $50,000 Futurity

By JAMES J. DELANEY
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 19.—With racing at Narragansett called off today for the second successive day, Walter E. O'Hara, also announced that the $50,000 New England Futurity scheduled for Saturday had been cancelled.

When politicians still occupied the track where racing was being called off today, the management will present a feature race for two-year-olds over a mile and a quarter distance with a purse of $10,000 added.

In fairness to the horsemen and trainers who have been preparing their great two-year-olds for this class, I feel it advisable to withdraw the race.

Needless training of such outstanding juveniles as Merion, Tiger, Today's Comet and others would be a waste of time and effort for those involved.

If racing is permitted at Narragansett Park Saturday, the management will present a feature race for two-year-olds over a mile and a quarter distance with a purse of $10,000 added.

No race will be held at Narragansett while any of the customers may be jeopardized.

A special meeting of the Narragansett Park Association will be held at an eight o'clock session on Saturday.

While only 35 horses were qualified for the race, the effort.

Says Hubby Shot In Self-Defense

MRS. DOROTHY HUDSON
Loyal Wife Holds Baby Beverly

DECLARING HERSELF IN self-defense and that she would stand by her husband, Mrs. Dorothy Hudson, 26, of Beverly, shot and wounded the fifteen-year-old son of her husband, today told her version of what led to the pistol affair.

The husband was held in $20,000 double security charged with assault with intent to murder.

John Blumfield, 31, the victim, was in serious condition at Massachusetts General Hospital.

The young mother, who passed the time of her husband's absence, said she was not at home.

"My husband shot Blumfield in self-defense. Blumfield was no his friend of mine."

"I turned and said, 'If I had ten dollars I'd have your head examined.'"

"My husband then started an argument because he didn't like it either. I walked out. I was tired of arguing."

Several hundred students were in the room at the time. Principal Edgar C. O'Brien said there would probably be no disciplinary action.

However, he said that 25 boy and girl students came to him several days ago, requesting permission to run a Junior graduation dance.

The group also complained of shutouts of their lunch period and authorities believe that some of this group may have started the outbreak.

Officers Wined, Dined

DAVID B. SHAW, chairman of the election commission, today was ordered to submit nomination papers filed in behalf of Alton B. Cook, Republican inavovity candidate to the Suffolk County grand jury tomorrow.

City and county officials have linked definitely five Charlestown police officers with the known "high-ups" in Boston's voting scandal, the Boston Evening American learned exclusively today.

The statement, it has been established, were filed and filed by the authors of the list of "high-ups" shortly after the registration took were completed in January.

The Boston Evening American was learned that 2000 odd tax breaks have been returned to the office of City Chairman John P. Dwyer since the post office mailing. No claim permit being at all.

Some of the striking results of the investigation at the collector's office were summarized that some were 21 must also pay back.

More than 200 of a total of 1,000 taxes mailed to Ward 1 addresses have been returned.

Flood of Opposition to War Talk Gains Momentum Among Solons

Holt Denies Mere Entrance of U. S. Into Parley

The present Congress of the United States will have no part of war.

Two treaty obligations requiring conference with foreign powers will be approached with equal caution and any action of such a conference, called upon the United States to take in favor of war, will be met with a flood of opposition from both Senate and House of Representatives.

Additional reason for the more cautious attitude of Senate and House is the knowledge that the United States is not alone in this attitude. The British, French, Italian, American, and other nations are all taking the same attitude.

Senator and Representative spokesmen of both chambers are taking the same attitude. Senator Charles McNary, Republican, Oregon, said that the United States should not take sides in the present controversy.

The United States should keep out of the League of Nations. The United States should not take sides in the present controversy.

SHOULD U. S. CHANGE ITS FOREIGN POLICY?

The nation is aroused by talk of war. The biggest question in the nation is how to keep the United States at peace. Seeking the answer, the Boston American polled Congress, asking their replies to the following seven questions:

- 1—Do you think United States should abide by its historical policy and keep free from Leagues of Foreign Nations or do you think new conditions make new policies necessary?
- 2—Do you think United States should act with nine power treaty parley and take sides in present foreign conflicts?
- 3—Do you think United States should act with leagues or combinations of foreign nations and resort to force or to hostile acts to repress war?
- 4—If the United States is to participate in foreign wars as they arise, should the United States by itself determine which nation is the aggressor or the guilty party, or should it be guided by a majority vote of a league or parley of foreign nations?
- 5—If the United States is to participate in foreign wars, which side should we take in the Spanish conflict—the Fascist or the Communist side?
- 6—If the United States is a democracy in which the will of the people rules, do you or do you not think that the very vital question of participating in any foreign war could best be decided by a referendum vote of the people?

The questions were asked with instructions to the telegraph companies to forward if the Senator or Congressman is within the territorial boundaries of the United States.

(Answers appear in adjoining column)

foreign war. The Constitution places the sole power to declare war in the hands of the Congress.

In the case of a war on foreign soil, I would have a constitutional amendment to make a referendum by the people necessary in declaration of war except one of defense, in which the vital need for speed in preparation would make a referendum inadvisable.

On the issue of whether the United States should keep out of the League of Nations, I am in favor of the United States keeping out of the League of Nations.

In my judgment the United States should keep out of the League of Nations.

Spain has taken a hand in the game of foreign troubles and intrigue by declaring Japan as an aggressor in the Far East. The neutrality act adopted in the last session of Congress has been torn out of the window.

The fact is, the Roosevelt bill foreign policy has contributed much to the present deplorable situation abroad. Mr. Roosevelt personally wrote the telegram in July, 1935, which declared the world economic conference then in session in London.

In that conference, the hope of the world for restoration of economic stability and prosperity was shattered.

Mr. Roosevelt's diplomatic efforts in both Europe and the United States have drifted day by day in the control direction of chaos and anarchy. But have been repudiated right and left. Armaments have been increased. Conspicuous has been tendency in every direction.

Through the last five years President Roosevelt has been in different international attitudes. Now the heaviest is moving into a new policy of rearmament which must result in an increase in the armaments of the United States. The new policy is a new policy of rearmament which must result in an increase in the armaments of the United States.

The declaration of Japan as an aggressor makes the United States an ally of League of Nations. It is a step toward the end of neutrality. It is a step toward the end of neutrality.

International disputes are being handled in a new way. It is a step toward the end of neutrality. It is a step toward the end of neutrality.

I am the author of the resolution which provides for a referendum on participation in foreign wars. It provides that except in case of a declaration of war, the United States shall not become effective until confirmed by a majority of all votes cast in a national referendum.

Under this resolution, American would not be sent into foreign wars to die in the settlement of disputes of alien origin until the people have had a chance to vote on the proposition.

Nearly all the World War veterans in the House have agreed the petition to have this resolution brought to the floor of the House for a vote. The veterans who are members of Congress are the members of Congress.

Help out of foreign economic matters, whether through Spain, the Far East or the nine power treaty table.

Reject 3 Women As Montague Jurors

State Seeks to Avoid 'Sentiment' in 'Golf Phantom's' Trial

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The state, in its desire to avoid John Montague's legendary Hollywood glitter and playmate of movie stars, in preference for a sober, unadorned jury, abruptly rejected today the first three prospective women jurors.

Without comment, District Attorney Thomas W. McDonald excused Mrs. Ethel Rogers and Mrs. Katharine Lammie of Lake Placid, and Mrs. Helen Mitchell, a Westport, N. Y., housewife.

As the trial opened in a rural mountain courtroom here, McDonald had declined to want to avoid any "sentimentality" in consideration of the case and added that Montague's recent life in the film capital would have no bearing on the evidence.

FACTS VILIFIED

When Montague sat down to facing the witnesses as they were questioned on the witness stand and frequently conferred with his counsel.

Besides the women, three men were excused by the defense lawyer. The first juror was accepted and automatically became foreman.

He is a white-haired, middle-aged man.

LAKE PLACID CAPTIVE

Montague arose into the courtroom, where the body of Ann Marie, who was shot Oct. 10 in state, was being held by his counsel, James M. Noonan of Albany. N. Y., smiling broadly at a group of men who were seated in the courtroom. He was wearing a dark suit and tie, and a white shirt.

DEMANDS CONVICTION

Two minutes after the jury returned, Judge Harry E. Owens took his seat behind a small, ornate bench.

Montague was indicted under the name of "John Montague," a 37-year-old man, who was charged with the murder of Ann Marie, who was shot Oct. 10 in state, on the charge from December 2, 1935, to July 14, 1936.

Girl, Boy Listed As Missing

An 18-year-old Newton girl was reported to police today as missing from her home on California street since Sunday morning.

A few minutes after this report was received, police received another disconcerting report stating that a 13-year-old Auburndale boy had been missing from his home since late Sunday afternoon.

The girl, described as Dorothy Bennett, walked out of her home Sunday and has not been heard from since. Her father, Andrew Bennett, said she may have gone to Maine to see friends.

The boy, Louis Dilling of Fern street, Auburndale, left his home Sunday and has not been heard from since, according to Mrs. Mary Dilling, his mother, who lives on Fern street.

Mockus Enters Guilty Plea

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 19 (AP)—Pleading guilty to seven indictments charging attempted murder, attempted assault and unlawful carrying of firearms, Les Mockus, 27, a carpenter, today bowed a 10-year-old girl told how he shot her and her companion.

Assistant District Attorney George Arbutnot asked Judge Walter Collins to hear some of the Mockus case details. Mockus, who is a carpenter, today bowed a 10-year-old girl told how he shot her and her companion.

WHY IS CAMEL WILLING TO SPEND MILLIONS OF DOLLARS MORE FOR COSTLIER TOBACCOS?

PEOPLE APPRECIATE THE DIFFERENCE. CAMELS ARE THE LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN THE WORLD!

LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA

Our Family puts up a Whiskey as Tasty as flapjacks and country sausage!

We never turn down Farmer Smollett's invitations!

When we go fishing or berrying up Farmer Smollett's way, we always make for the path that takes us close by his cabin, in hopes he'll ask us to stop by for flapjacks. When he's cooking up a batch, there's the loveliest smells come floating through the woods out of his kitchen. It starts us running towards his cabin like anything!

Harry E. Wilken

It's the personal recipe of us Wilkens who've been distilling for over 50 years!

If you can hardly wait to eat when you look at juicy little country sausages in a sizzling skillet bubbling and popping their heads off—then you and me think just about the same. Those elegant little sausages and a big stack of brown flapjacks with real rich syrup all over them and melted country butter oozing out from in between them—that's what I call tasty!

And that's what I mean when I say this personal whiskey recipe of ours is tasty. It's something you wouldn't scarcely expect to find in a whiskey if it wasn't for the fact our Family's been spending our whole lives learning all the little whichways that make a whiskey specially mild and tasty. If you stack our Family's Whiskey alongside of country sausages, I just couldn't say which is tastier. Anyways, you sure ought to try The Wilken Family Whiskey if you want something real good tasting!

Harry E. Wilken

It's sure TASTY and MILD!

Three New Englanders are included in the United States delegation to the Nine Power treaty conference in Beijing, Belgium, starting on July 10. It is almost 50 years ago that the United States became one of the nations to agree at a Washington session in respect to the territorial and administrative integrity of China. The group met in Washington to confer with State Department officials before sailing. They are, left to right, standing: Charles E. Bohlen, U.S. ambassador to Beijing; Robert T. Pell, of Fort Belknap, Idaho; and Nathan C. H. Huenkel, U.S. Navy. Seated are: William C. Franklin, Mass., advisor to the delegation; left to right: U.S. State Department officials; President Roosevelt's young ambassador, and Pierrepont Mott, Hancock, N. H., also an advisor.

'Get-Rich-Quick' Hearing Delayed

Judge Edward Pierce in Suffolk Superior Court today continued the hearing on information by the attorney general's office in connection with the operations of the Boston Dead-end Group protesting the outcome of the criminal action against the operators.

Yesterday Judge S. Pierce said Martin Nathan, owner of the group, had a checkbook which was used to pay the Suffolk County sheriff after the group had been ordered to pay $25,000 in damages.

He revealed that the group had been ordered to pay the damages before Nathan was made an operator of the group. The order was made in a summary trial in the county court on November 9.

400 Police on Duty For Emergency

It is the threat of a lawsuit that has caused the Nippon Shuppan Kaisha Co. to order an emergency trial of 400 off sets to remain in the shipping port, the result of a court reference.

A suit was filed with a Tokyo court and an order was issued by the presiding officer to return the plates.

But a Tokyo press report of the same time said that the Japanese Press Union of Japan had refused to return the plates and the court had ordered the return of all the plates pending the trial of the suit.

The court gave a $15,000 fine to the publisher of the magazine as a part of the suit and a $10,000 fine to the publisher of the magazine as a part of the suit.

Salvation Army Warns of Fakers

"I cannot too strongly denounce these impostors representing themselves as belonging to the Salvation Army and taking money from the public under false pretences. W. A. Nord, the campaign director, stated

Storm Warnings Up on East Coast

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold air. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I had heard that the weather in the north was harsh, but I didn't realize how cold it would be. The wind was biting, and the sun was a pale, distant glow in the sky. I wrapped my arms around myself, trying to keep warm. The ground below was a vast, flat expanse of white, stretching out to the horizon. I had never seen anything like this before. It was beautiful, but also a little scary. I took a deep breath and tried to relax. I knew I was here for a reason, and I had to make the most of it. I looked up at the sky, where a few birds were flying. They seemed so small and fragile in the face of the vast, open landscape. I felt a sense of awe and wonder. This was a new world, a world I had never before. I was here, and I was going to make it my own.

Eyes ARE PRICELESS

Switch to BETTER LIGHT FOR BETTER SIGHT

We often overwork our eyes in poor light unknowingly—and then we pay the penalty in fatigue, nervousness and sometimes permanent damage to health.

Overworked eyes are one big reason why 20% of all school children, 23% of college students and 48% of all adults at age forty have defective vision.

Much of this eyestrain is unnecessary. You can have abundant glare-free light enough for reading, writing, sewing or other close work from I. E. S. Lamps. These lamps have passed the rigid requirements of the Illuminating Engineering Society.

Now Boston Edison places them on sale at unusually low prices. For the sake of your eyes and your family's health read the offer at the right.

5 SIMPLE RULES FOR LIGHT CONDITIONING

1. Have your eyes examined by a competent specialist.
2. Have a good reading lamp by every chair where reading, sewing or other close work is done.
3. Make sure every new reading lamp is of the approved I. E. S. Better Light-Better Sight type.
4. Use at least one 100-watt bulb or two 60's or three 40's in each reading lamp.
5. Replace dark lampshades with new, light-colored shades.

Save with Solvenoil

● Remarkable new motor lubricant clings to metal, provides safe lubrication at all speeds, will reduce average driver's repairs $25 a year.

New England has acclaimed Jenney Solvenized—the new scientific gasoline that chases carbon. Now Jenney announces the perfect team-mate——developed in the same laboratories Solvenoil is pure Pennsylvania oil improved by a patented process which makes it an entirely new, remarkable development in lubrication.

JENNEY SOLVENOIL

Due to this patented process (licensed to Jenney in New England) Solvenoil forms a thin, tough film which clings to metal so that even at the extreme pressure of fast driving, every metal surface is protected.

Under friction and heat that would burn up ordinary oil, Solvenoil still lubricates perfectly. And yet winter-grade Solvenoil will flow freely at below-zero temperatures and provide quick, safe lubrication the instant you start your motor.

Another safety feature of Solvenoil is that it reduces sludge and contamination. This prolongs the life of the oil and improves lubrication. With Solvenoil you will use less oil and get better car performance.

Car repairs due to imperfect lubrication cost up to $25 or more a year. Cut this waste, reduce your oil bill, increase the power of your car—with JENNEY SOLVENOIL.

Pedestrian Deaths

THE National Safety Congress received the interesting report from one of its committees that out of every 100 persons killed by automobiles 40 are pedestrians.

But in its compilation of statistics, obtained in a survey of five States, the committee discovered a more important fact.

It found that "55 per cent of the pedestrian deaths resulted from accidents chargeable principally to the fault of the pedestrian himself."

Observation of the careless habits of people who walk on busy streets and highways makes this report easy to believe.

It is an amazing experience to stand on a busy corner and watch the chances people take between curbs. The extremes to which pedestrians will go in gambling their lives against the ability of drivers to stop approaching cars are constantly demonstrated at street intersections in every city, nowhere more than in Boston.

The willingness of pedestrians to BET THEIR LIVES against the brakes on an automobile and the judgment of its driver is a major contributing factor in the total of lives lost annually.

Of course it does not excuse recklessness on the part of motorists to know pedestrians are also reckless. This adds to rather than reduces the responsibility of motorists. Because of it they must approach intersections with greater caution, keep their brakes in better order.

If we are ever going to reduce the harvest of automobile deaths, we must learn to WALK SAFELY as well as DRIVE SAFELY.

The report of the Safety Congress Committee puts proper emphasis on the division of responsibility between pedestrians and motorists.

Perhaps the best brief statement of this responsibility is:

If you drive, assume the pedestrian WON'T GET OUT OF YOUR WAY.

If you walk, assume the approaching car CAN'T STOP.

The Honest Voter's Duty

CHARGES of fraudulent party listings and forged names on nomination papers become more numerous and serious as Election Day nears in Boston.

It becomes increasingly apparent that attempts to nullify the will of the honest voter are not confined to Charleston; that they are rather widely distributed throughout the city.

Every voter, therefore, ought to take full advantage of his legal right to expose the schemes of crooked politicians.

Every voter who can possibly afford the time should visit the nearest station house or City Hall and examine carefully the police listings. These are public property. Everybody has the privilege of reading them.

When the voter is shown the listings, he should look for his own name, his family's names and his neighbors' names.

If he finds that a stranger is supposed to be living under his roof, or in the vacant house down the street, he should report the discovery IMMEDIATELY to the Police Commissioner, the District Attorney and the Election Commission.

In this way, the honest citizen who wants an honest election can make it impossible for "matresses" and mythical "voters" to turn the tide of victory to candidates who obviously realize they cannot hope to win in a legitimate manner.

The people of Boston should convince the political schemers that vote stealing will not be tolerated. The convincing is a major duty for every friend of good government.

New Hope for the Deaf

NATIONAL Hearing Week, endorsed for the nation by the President and proclaimed in Massachusetts by the Governor, concerns everybody.

The purpose, as Mr. Hurley well states, is to urge all persons "to consider the problem of rehabilitation for those already handicapped by deafness, that they may find their right places in educational, social and economic life, and to founder the means of conservation of hearing."

This is a worthy aim; it is our duty to help and encourage those who are afflicted and to prevent loss of hearing in others, school children especially.

From the list of activities of National Hearing Week will be the Boston Guide for the Hard of Hearing. This organization, like its 160 sister societies throughout the country, is doing a splendid work and deserves strong support.

Deafness, thanks to lip-reading, mechanical devices and the progress of medicine and surgery, is by no means the hopeless affliction it used to be. Many of the thousands now in a world of perpetual silence can and will hear again. That is certain. Only proper and immediate treatment is required.

Maine Teaches a Lesson

THE residents of South Paris, Me., give us new evidence of the cold deliberation and self-restraint that have made the New England character the wonder and admiration of the nation.

When Paul Dwyer was returned from New Jersey to face charges of having murdered Dr. and Mrs. James Littlefield, beloved by all the townspeople, South Paris citizens looked on silently, said nothing.

Though all who witnessed the accused youth's homecoming were deeply shocked by the crimes he is said to have confessed, nobody shouted a threat or made a single move that might have roused the calm of the gathering.

It was crystal clear that South Paris was resolved to leave the satisfaction of justice in the hands of the authorities.

Other parts of the United States and the world with their shameful records of racial hysteria, lynchings and violence could learn much from the good people of Maine.

New York Day by Day

Keep Those Anchors Down!

By Nelson Harding

There must be no voicing of the Ship of State into the perils of foreign ventures.

The threat of such a course has been sounded, and the American people have been alarmed.

Fortunately, the anchors still hold —the anchors of America's own and safe interests.

For those interests are AT HOME, minding our own business, and not elsewhere in the vast whirlpools of international intrigues and jealousies.
